

Maria Teresa FROM NICARAGUA

This group is comprised of three women (Amelia Beatriz, Maria Teresa, and Stefanie Margiene). They are enterprising women who struggle every day in order to generate income from their small businesses.

Maria Teresa is the coordinator of the Mujeres En Marcha united group. In order to have her own source of income, she started a small grocery store in the hallway of her stilt and wood home ten years ago. She is requesting a loan of $950 USD to buy basic grains, snacks, eggs, and soft drinks.

This month, Cascade Investment Advisors decided to focus its charitable lending efforts to a group in Nicaragua...

Although it's the poorest country in Central America, Nicaragua is making efforts to alleviate its poverty. We hope that by lending to groups like Mujeres En Marcha, we might be able to help to diminish that country's substantial unemployment rate.
